【Notice】

- Those who apply for English course credit with courses from other schools are not recommended to take English courses in the current semester because the review results may affect students' course selection planning and rights.
- Steps for Credit Transfer :
 - During the first week of the new semester (please check the latest announcement for the exact date), there will be an English test for transfer students; course level will be assigned for each students according to the test result.
 ※ Graded test results will be announced on the website of the Center for EMI Teaching Excellence, and Students' Courses selection system.
 - Please follow the Academic Affairs Calendar to apply for credit transfer :
 Please submit the form of credit transfer, all NSYSU transcripts from previous years and related supporting documents to the Center for EMI Teaching Excellence within the period of credit transfer application. The Center for EMI Teaching Excellence will not accept the overdue applications.
 ※ For those who apply for credit transfer with English exam results, please bring the original transcript and the photocopy. The original transcript will be returned after inspection.
 ※ For those who apply for credit transfer with the courses from other schools, please bring the course content form, the syllabus, the original transcript and the photocopy.
 - During the second week of the start of school: The Center for EMI Teaching Excellence and the Registration Division will begin to conduct administrative procedures such as transfer inspection and credit registration.
 ※ The results of credit transfer will be sent to each department office without further notice.
 Please contact each department office to get the results.
 ※ For subjects approved for credit, if the system has automatically allocated courses or students have completed course selection, please be sure to cancel the selection within the period of addition and withdrawal.
- Notice for credit transfer of advanced level / high-intermediate level :
 - "English Language Courses" (Intermediate, High-Intermediate, Advanced) can be transferred for mutual credit with "Intercollegiate Elective EAP/ESP Courses", which have to match corresponding levels.
 - Students who are initially assigned advanced level are deemed to have passed the high-intermediate level. There is no need to apply for the credit transfer of high-intermediate level.
 - For those who would like to change their level to advanced level must apply for credit transfer of high-intermediate level. Please fill in the form of credit transfer "Level Change: Advanced."
